NOTE: There are more questions below than you are expected to answer. Please just choose a few that are relevant for your personal reflection & application.

1. What was your major takeaway from the message this morning?
2. (Scale 1-10) "I strive to see the world as God sees it, understand His plan and know my part in the solution." Rank yourself on this scale. Explain your answer.
3. Pastor Craig shared a recent experience that caused him to rethink the way he saw the world. Briefly share a recent experience that caused you to change the way you see the world.
4. In what ways can a Christian employ a 'virtual reality' way of seeing the world? Namely, in what ways do we block out the real world and live in a heavenly realm, completely divorced from the real world?
5. "The Bible can be understood as an augmenting reality layer for our lives. Every Christian is encouraged to augment their reality with God's Word." In what ways does your devotional life augment or enhance the way you see the world in which you live? Should that component even be a part of your devotional life?
6. How do you understand passages like Psalm 119:105; 2 Timothy 3:16 and Deuteronomy 6:8? Do these passages support using augmented reality as a new metaphor for understanding Scriptural obedience everyday?
7. "Unprecedented access to the Word hasn't been as matched with an unprecedented obedience to the Word." To what degree do you agree with this statement?
8. "We are not a 'Word alone' people but a 'Christ alone' people. It is not the 'Word alone' that helps us interpret reality and propel ministry, but the WORD and the SPIRIT." What are the implications of a statement like this to you?
