DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What was your major takeaway from the message this morning?
2. When you find your views clashing with someone else, what's your initial response: to abdicate/walk away or escalate/fight?
3. What might it look like for you to engage in a productive manner with this person/people?
4. In Matthew 22:15-22, Jesus's opponents try force him into an either/ or response.
5. Jesus chooses another way. How can we use Christ's example to avoid getting bogged down in combative arguments?
6. What was the most power part of the video story for you?
7. If there is an issue in your life that God wants to "set right" what would you say it is?
8. Ephesians 2:13-16 says Jesus came to destroy hostility between us and others. Where are the hostile dividing walls in your live these days? What might God want to do in your to see those walls come down?
