NOTE: There are more questions below than you are expected to answer. Please just choose a few that are relevant for your personal reflection & application.

1. On a scale of 1 to 10, how prevalent are the Global Giants in Holland?
2. The Five Global Giants are: Spiritual emptiness, self-serving leadership, multifaceted illiteracy, disease and poverty and injustice. Which of these have you had more contact with?
3. How has your experience of one of these giants has shaped your view of the world, the church and of God?
4. 35% of the households in the Holland area struggle to afford basic needs (meaning that they are at or below a “survival” budget). What, if anything can an individual Christian do to address the issue?
5. How can a Christian avoid feeding and clothing the hungry without ignoring a person’s need to experience the hope and life of Jesus?
6. How can you guard against your faith becoming self-serving? In what areas is self-serving faith most prevalent do you think?
