NOTE: There are more questions below than you are expected to answer. Please just choose a few that are relevant for your personal reflection & application.

WORD - 1 Chronicles 29:1-20

1. What did you learn from this scripture today?
2. What did God teach you about yourself from this passage?
3. What did God teach you about Himself from this passage?
4. What impact should this scripture have on your life?

MESSAGE

1. What was your main takeaway from this teaching?
2. Craig said, "Remembering the past is tantamount to being faithful in the present." How has this statement been true in your life? Think of some significant examples.
3. J.G. McConville said, "Often the extent to which we are prepared to put at risk our material well-being is a measure of the seriousness with which we take our discipleship." Think on this statement - what is your reaction to it, and what are the ramifications for you if it is true?
4. Think of ways you have sacrificed for someone or something else before. Think back to the reasons you chose to do so. What were they?

RESPONSE

1. What are you reasonably sure God is telling you to do in response to this teaching?
2. If you haven't already, think and pray of what commitment God is calling you to make for the Stronger Campaign.

1 Chronicles 29:14a "But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to give as generously as this?"
