HOW LOW POINTS BECOME HIGH PEAKS

3.10.24 • Adam Davidson and Alica Bruxvoort • Who's in Charge?

Bottom Line

When we recognize God's loving authority in our lives, we can face low points with calm and confidence because we know He is working every situation for good and His plans will always prevail.

Key Verses

John 19:6-11
2 Corinthians 6:16b
Acts 17:28
Matthew 11:27-30

Discussion Questions

1. Does the idea of God being in charge comfort or frustrate you? Why
2. In John 19:6-11 there's a power struggle. The religious leaders are grasping for control; Pilate believes he's in control and Jesus knows who's in control. Who do you relate to most in this scene and why?
3. In what situation do you need calm/ confidence at the moment?
4. It's difficult to trust God's authority if you don't know His character. What's something you know about God by experience that increases your confidence in His plan? Is there a "word" He has spoken through Scripture that encourages you to trust Him more?
5. What's one way you can strengthen the depth of your connection with God right now?
