1. If being a parent of school age kids is your life stage, how are you really doing with the back to school season? Where do you see Jesus in the midst of it?
2. Read Proverbs 9:1-6. What struck you about the imagery of wisdom inviting you in for a meal?
3. Do you feel like life is more an adventure/journey or a to-do list?
4. Has Jesus, or your time with Him, become a box that you check?
5. Is your bike okay? What really is the primary focus of your life? Has a spoke become the center?
6. Where do you need Jesus to strengthen a spoke in the wheel of your life?
7. In his teaching, Steve gave a comparison between “gaze” and “glance”. What was your take away from this comparison? What are you “gazing at”? What are you “glancing at”? How is this impacting you?
8. Are you ready to lead? Ready to jump in to a place where God has more for you? Let us know today if you haven’t already—go online to centralholland.org/lead
