“We hire Jesus as our savior.
But we fire Jesus as our teacher.”

Jeff Manion

We want Jesus to be our savior.
But we don't want him to be our king.

Matthew 7

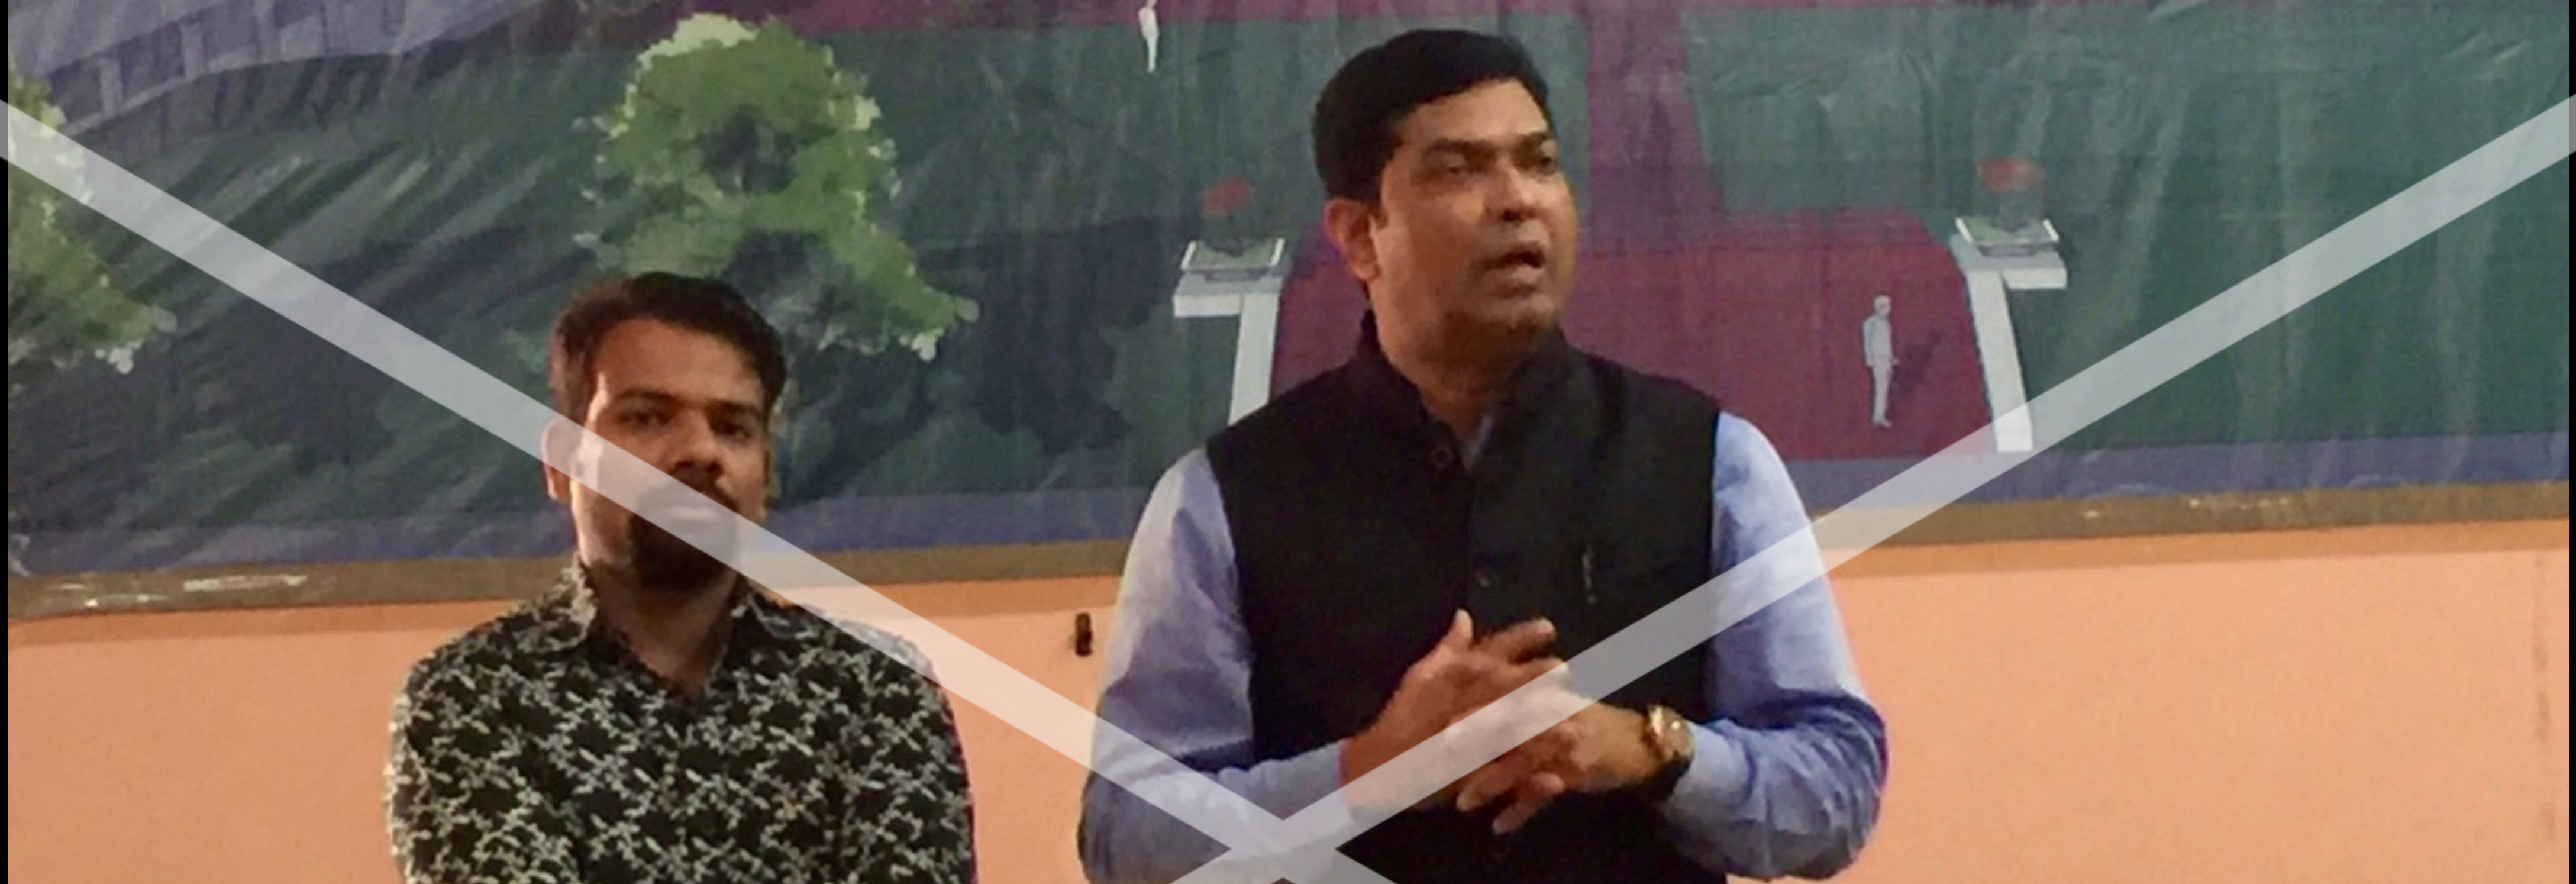

pg. 972

“When Yeshua [Jesus] speaks of the Kingdom he identifies himself as the King and emphasizes the dynamic activity of his reign in the power of the Holy Spirit. But he also uses Kingdom language to refer to those who entered his movement, who are walking after him in discipleship and keeping his commandments.”

Dwight Pryor, Unveiling the Kingdom of Heaven, 98

Being part of Jesus' kingdom movement involves both faith/relationship and action.

Ephesians 2

pg. 1174

Luke 17

pg. 1050

“The time has come. The kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe the good news!”

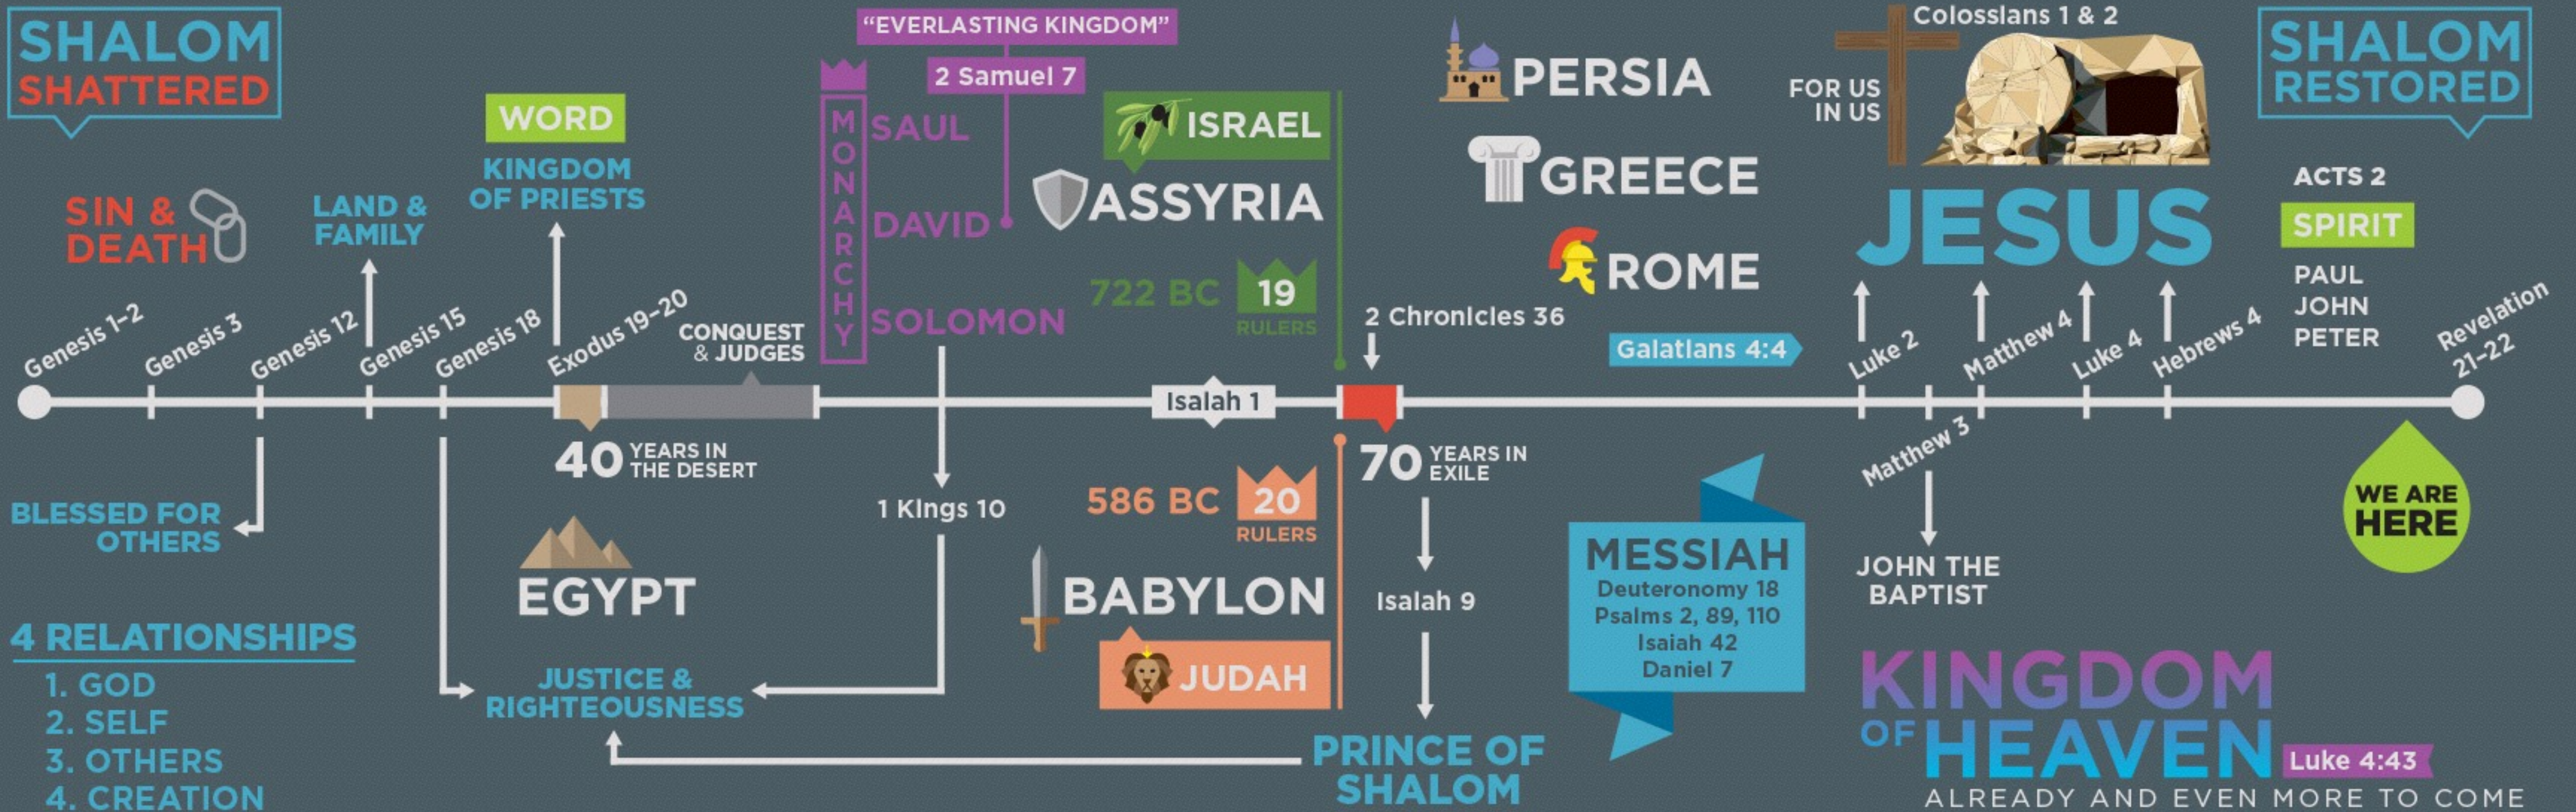

Mark 1:15

“The phrase is more active. It doesn’t just tell you where the kingdom is; it tells you that you’ve got to do something about it. It is ‘within your grasp’; it is confronting you with a decision, the decision to believe, trust and follow Jesus. It isn’t the sort of thing that’s just going to happen, so that you can sit back and watch. God’s sovereign plan to put the world to rights is waiting for you to sign on. That is the force of what Jesus is saying.”

Tom Wright, Luke For Everyone, 210
