

FREEDOM No LIMITED

FREE TO BE THE "REAL" ME

Scripture forces us to make freedom spiritual
before it is political and social.

WHAT IS THE REAL ME LIKE?

The real me

is set free from bondage to sin
and desires to grow
to become more like Christ.

The real me
wants to grow in my character
to the extent that my relationships deepen.

The real me

yearns for richer relationships with other believers to the point where our differences help me appreciate the greatness of God.

The real me

approaches the challenges of our nation
desperate to understand the mind of Christ,
even if that forces me to reconstruct
the way I've viewed the world.

To become the real me.
I face my spiritual struggles with integrity.

Proverbs 11:3

Proverbs 11:3

The integrity of the upright guides them, but the unfaithful are destroyed by their duplicity.

To become the real me.

I accept that what appears theological is often cultural.

Mark 7:9,13

To become the real me.

I step into the world as a learner.

Proverbs 18:15

Proverbs 18:15

The heart of the discerning acquires knowledge,
for the ears of the wise seek it out.

To become the real me.

I embrace difference as a vehicle for growth.

Revelation 7:9-14
