

DOORS WITH LEGS

BRAD GRAY

A stylized illustration featuring a large, dark brown cross centered on a green, rounded hill. The cross is flanked by two smaller, lighter brown crosses. Above the hill, a bright yellow sun with a textured, brush-stroke appearance is visible, with several white rays extending outwards. The background is a solid dark grey or black.

Give me your tired, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free, the wretched refuse of your teeming shores. Send these, the homeless, the tossed and tendered to me, to my little golden door.

HOSANNA TO THE SON OF DAVID!

Why do you do these things?

I've made room for you.
Go on in.

Come with us... we were all exiles once.

Woman, you are loosed from your infirmity.

Be healed on a work day,
not the Sabbath!

He healed me!

— Me too!

On the Sabbath?
We must get rid of him!

Stretch out your hand.

LUKE 6

LUKE 13

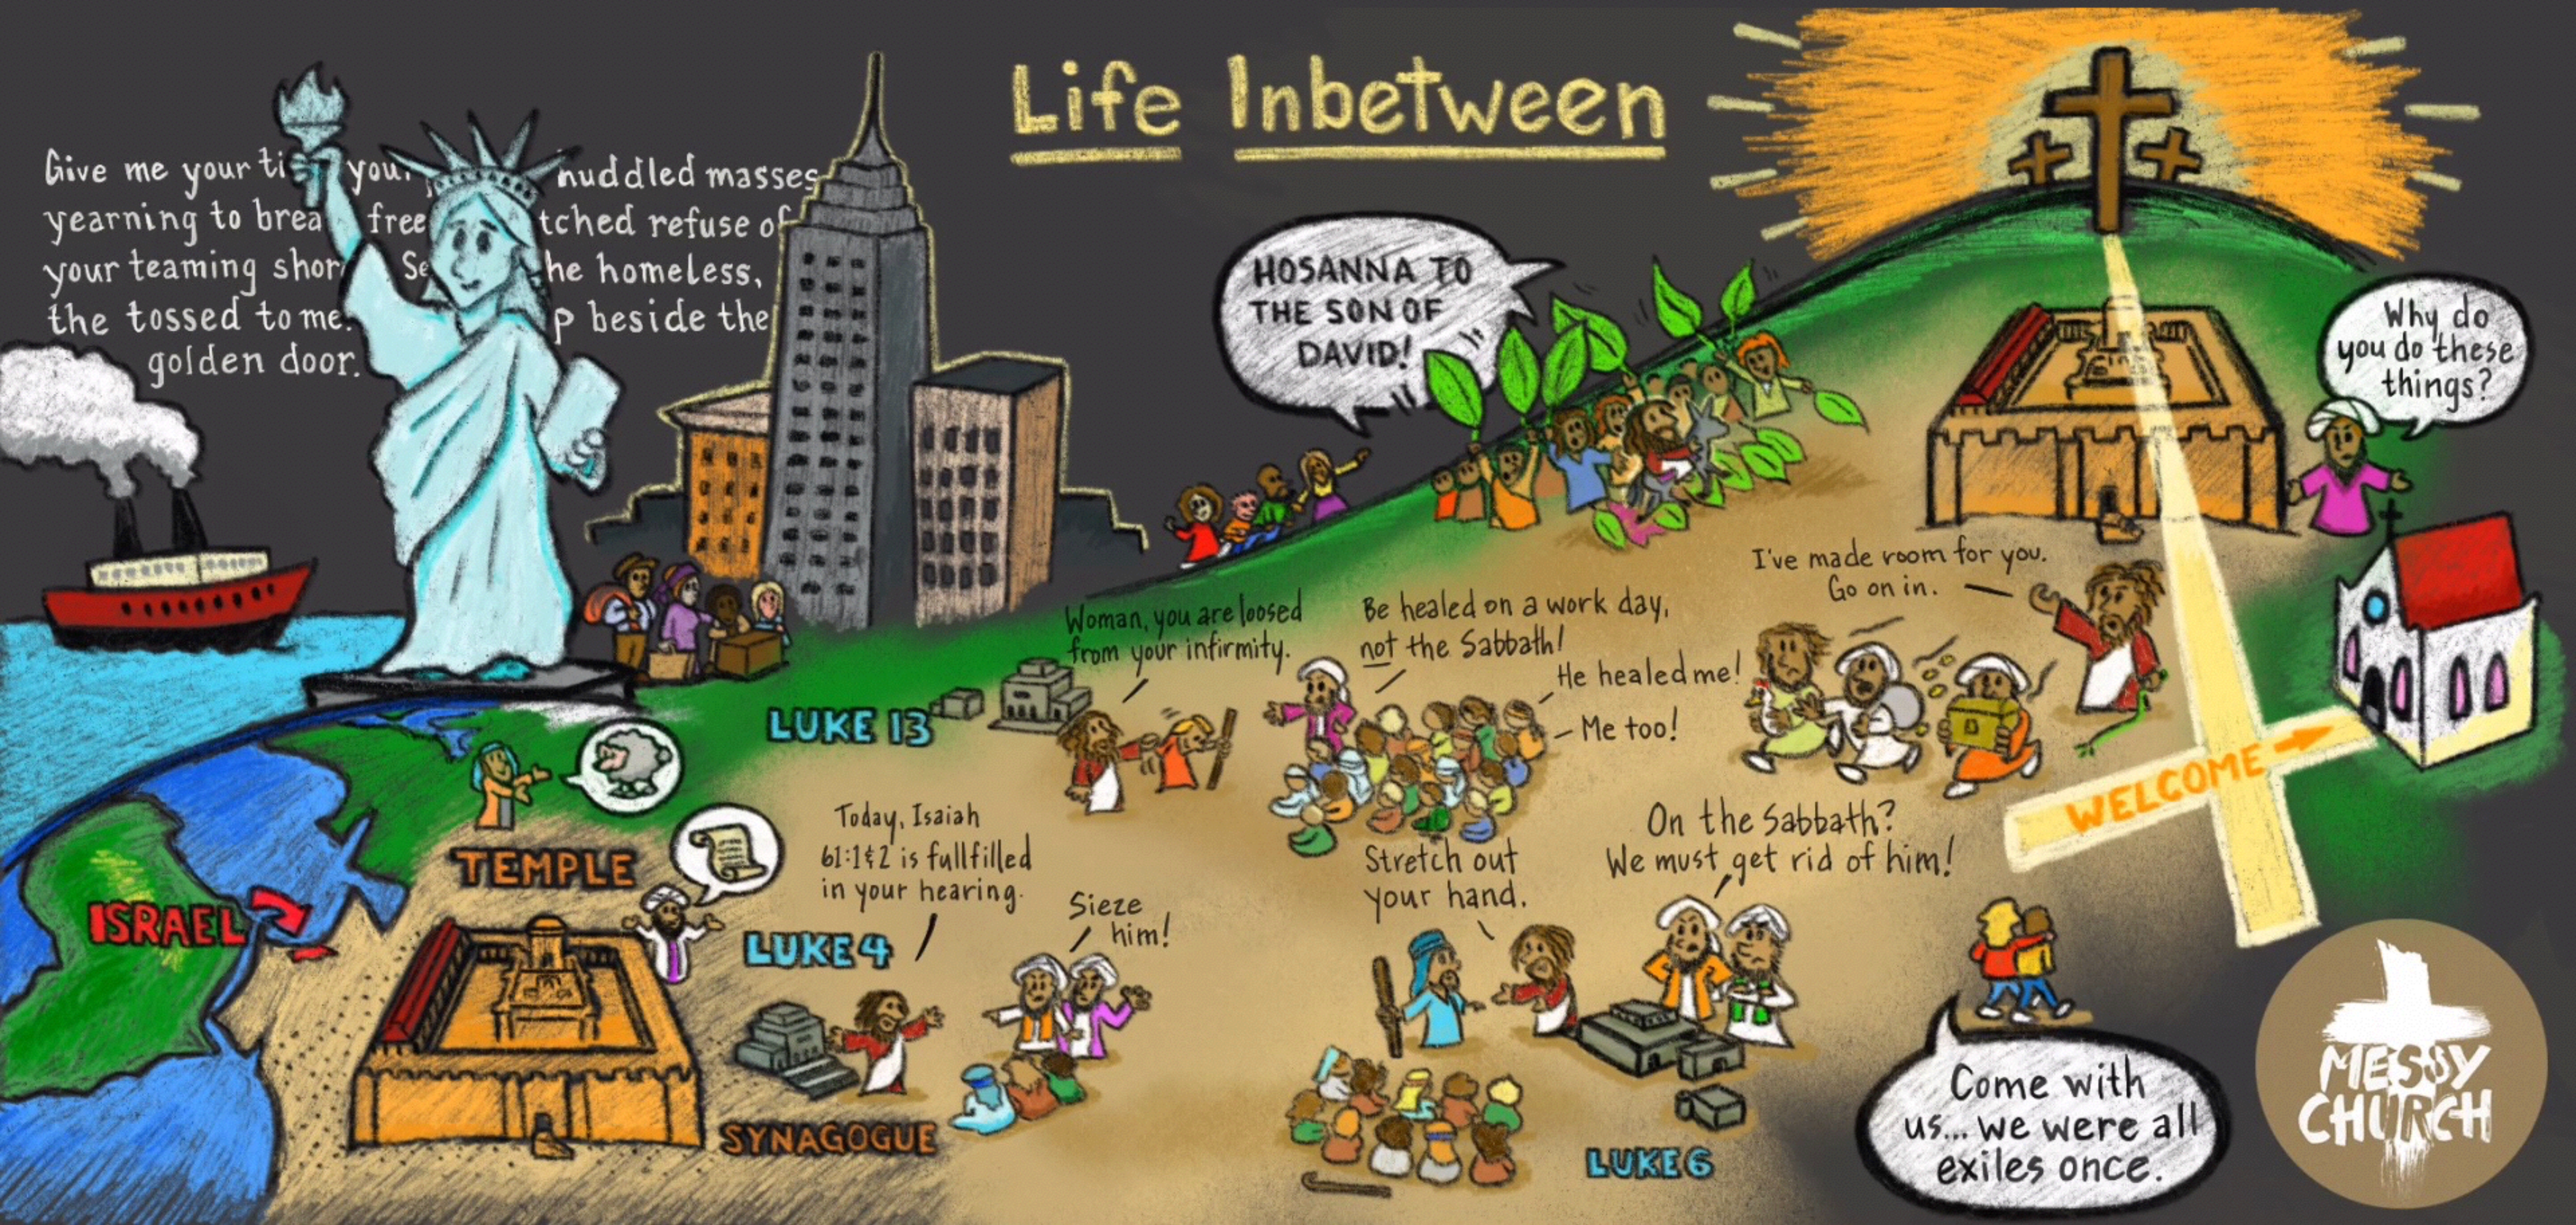

Today, Isaiah
61:1&2 is fullfilled
in your hearing.

Sieze
/ him!

LUKE 4

SYNAGOGUE

TEMPLE

Luke 5

pg. 1032

The doors of a church gotta have legs.

