“This is a song, about human love, found in the Bible, written to give us wisdom.”

The Song of Solomon Illustrated

(For our literalist friends.)

"How beautiful you are, my darling, how beautiful you are!"

...Your eyes are like doves behind your veil...

...Your hair is like a flock of goats...

...Your teeth are like a flock of newly shorn ewes...

...Your lips are like a scarlet thread...

...Your temples are like a slice of pomegranate...

...Your neck is like the tower of David ... built with rows of stones
on which are hung a thousand shields...

...Your two breasts are
like two fawns,
twins of a gazelle
Which feed among the silies...

...Your lips, my bride,
drip honey ... honey and
milk are under your tongue,

And the fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon...

...Your navel is a round goblet...
Your belly is like a heap of wheat...

...your nose is like the
tower of Lebanon,
which faces toward Damascus..."

...from
Song of Solomon
Chapters
four and seven.

Song of Songs 6:3

You're never looking for the one.

You're never looking for the one.
You're actually looking for the two.

Looking for the one to COMPLEMENT you.

Looking for the one to COMPLEMENT you.
And looking for the one to COMPLETE you.
