NOTE: There are more questions below than you are expected to answer. Please just choose a few that are relevant for your personal reflection & application.

1. What was your major takeaway from the message?
2. What was the most challenging aspect of this message?
3. We saw a short clip from Jerry Maguire – one of countless clips on shaping our worldview on relationship. How has the entertainment industry negatively affected our views on relationships?
4. Brad talked about the many ways we seek our identity, worth, hope, and ultimate security in someone or something other than God (such as: in work, a relationship, our bank account, our kids, etc.). Do you ever struggle with this? If so, how?
5. If you're married, how have you placed (intentionally or unintentionally) demands upon your spouse that they were never intended to fulfill – hence, you were seeking completion in them and not in God? How were your eyes opened anew in the teaching to this?
6. If you're single, how were you challenged in this teaching? How were you affirmed in this message (and in the series as a whole)?
7. In what ways can you (whether single or married) personally grow in your relationship with God?
8. If married, in what ways can you and your spouse grow together in your relationship with God?
